Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Slayton returned from Boston last evening, where they have been for several days.

Universalist Church

A good audience greeted the speaker, W. C. White of Northfield, at the morning service last Sunday. His subject, "Universalism—What It Is and What It Is Not," was handled in a clear, forceful and convincing manner and held the interested attention of his hearers throughout. He will supply the pulpit again next Sunday, taking "Accidents" for his subject.

The Mission Circle will meet tomorrow at 2:30 with Mrs. Howard Stevens. The study of the book, "The Child in the Midst," will be begun at this meeting. The watchword will be Faithfulness. The ladies are requested to be prepared to give some item of religious news, denominational or otherwise.

Wilma Gill will lead the Junior Union next Sunday afternoon.

Advent Church

A four-fold lesson was brought from the text, John 12:24, last Sunday by Rev. G. W. Tabor. The analogy was shown between the "corn of wheat" and the life of Christ, and applied to individual experience. Which of these four is the guide of your life—self destruction, self gratification, self reservation or self dedication? That which bringeth forth much fruit is most highly pleasing to the Redeemer.

Sayings of prominent Americans, pledge signing, etc., formed part of the program for the Temperance lesson in Sunday School.

Mrs. Mabel Chamberlain led the Loyal Workers meeting.

Friday evening, Feb. 5, the Ladies' Aid Society will hold a 10c social at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith on Dorchester Heights. Everybody invited.

Remember the prayer service tomorrow evening. Let this be the ideal service of the week.

Last Sunday there was a large attendance at the morning service and the service was one of interest. The attendance at Sunday School was 159.

Sunday evening the Epworth League service was especially interesting. The subject was "Evenings with great Hymns." Prof. Terrill gave an address which was both interesting and instructive, so that altogether the service was a most profitable one. Mrs. Jackson sang "Face to Face," which was an inspiration to all present.

Don't forget the concert which is to be given at the town hall Saturday evening, Feb. 13, by the Ithaca Conservatory of Music Trio.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN
The three weeks' Evangelistic Campaign, with Rev. Fred St. Clair of Berkeley, Cal., as evangelist, opened on the Sabbath with three services—morning, afternoon and evening.

At the morning service, in a brief introductory address, the evangelist asked that his audience grant him the favor of suspending judgment upon him for at least a week. At the end of that time, he assured them that they might have the privilege of expressing their opinion of him and that perhaps he would tell them what opinion he had formed of them.

His message for the morning was a clear presentation of the fact that a revival in Morrisville must come, not from the human, but from God. He also said there were three ways in which to hinder the revival—by disbelieving God, by disobeying God, by being dishonest with God.

In the afternoon an audience again gathered and listened to a heart-searching message from Psa. 139:23-24.

In the evening, before the hour announced for opening, the church began to fill and soon nearly every seat in the house was taken. Mr. St. Clair's theme for the evening sermon was "Confession and Restoration." He held the close attention of his audience as he brought them the truth, illustrating and enforcing it by many incidents which had come under his personal observation in different parts of the country.

Not only was the congregation intensely interested in the preaching of Mr. St. Clair but his singing was much appreciated. The solo sung at the morning service was especially enjoyed by his audience.

Bible readings will be given by the Evangelist Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of each week. A cordial invitation is given to all who are interested in Bible study to attend. These readings will commence at 2:15 and close promptly at 3:30.

The hour of service on Sabbath afternoons will be 2:30 instead of 3 o'clock as advertised. Services every evening except Saturday at 7:30.

H. L. Bentley is in Boston this week attending the annual session of the Eastman School of Professional Photography.
